

Tournament Guidelines

- This tournament for Call of Duty Black ops will be a single elimination tournament
- Abuse of any of the equipment will result in your disqualification from the Tournament
- Profiles and custom classes will NOT be allowed for this tournament.
- NO memory cards will be allowed/used at the tournament.
- All controllers will be provided by the Tournament staff.
- If a maximum capacity is reached at the venue, spectators may be asked to remain outside of the playing area until the player they are watching is playing.
- The tournament staff have the right to limit the number of entries if the venue will not accommodate more players.
- Threats, racial comments, or inappropriate language and behavior will not be tolerated.
If you are warned and not compliant with such guidelines, you will be asked to leave the tournament and disqualified.
- No sideline coaching is allowed. You may cheer or boo as the game progresses (and you're encouraged to do so), but you may not offer advice to anyone playing a game.
- If you are more than 5 minutes late to the tournament's posted start time, you may have to forfeit the tournament. Also, if your next game is ready to be played, and you are not around, you will have 5 minutes to get back and get started, or you will forfeit that game.
- If a player purposely turns off a game while it is in progress, that player will be disqualified from the tournament. Entry into future tournaments may be denied. Arguing with the tournament officials about a decision may result in disqualification from the tournament.
- If any other game glitches are discovered during the tournament giving a player an unfair advantage, the tournament commissioners have the right to ban using the glitch after the point in which it is discovered.
- If you feel that your opponent is cheating, notify a judge. The judge's decision is final and you could be kicked out of the Tournament and all futures tournaments!
